The image shows a drum score for two pieces: 'Visací zámek' and 'Noviny'. The score is written on a single staff in 4/4 time. It begins with a 4-measure rest, followed by a series of rhythmic patterns. The score is divided into 11 numbered measures, each containing a specific drum pattern. The patterns are primarily composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some measures featuring triplets or more complex rhythmic figures. The notation includes various drum symbols such as snare, tom, and cymbal, along with dynamic markings like accents (^) and asterisks (*). The score concludes with a final measure marked '11'.

This musical score, titled "Noviny", consists of 21 numbered measures of rhythmic notation. The notation is presented on a grand staff with two staves per measure. The notes are primarily eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together in groups. Above the notes, there are various rhythmic markings, including vertical lines with flags, asterisks, and accents (^). Some measures include repeat signs (double slashes) or fermatas. The measures are numbered 12 through 21, with measure 12 appearing at the top right and measure 21 at the bottom right. The overall style is that of a technical exercise or a rhythmic study.
